Celebrate Truffle Month in Oregon's Willamette Valley

Truffles take center stage as Newberg Truffle Month returns, featuring special vacation packages, truffle-themed meals, gourmet tastings, and a variety of truffle-centered activities

Newberg, Oregon (December 9, 2021) — The month-long celebration of truffles returns to Willamette Valley wine country with the second annual Newberg Truffle Month, starting February 1. Hosted by Taste Newberg, the official online visitor resource for the city of Newberg, Newberg Truffle Month highlights truffles from Oregon and beyond through experiences at restaurants, wineries, shops, and lodging packages. Newberg is the gateway to Oregon's Willamette Valley and home to over 65 wineries, giving guests an abundance of reasons to book a winter getaway.

As the Portland-area location of the Oregon Truffle Festival, the authoritative annual showcase of Oregon's native truffles, Newberg has built a reputation among truffle enthusiasts. It's also home to Black Tie Tours, a wine touring outfit that offers a rare opportunity to experience truffle foraging firsthand alongside truffle hunter Stefan Czarniecki and his trained truffle dog Ella. In the Oregon truffle season, which peaks in February, guests can follow Ella into the woods to hunt for the culinary delicacies in the wild, followed by a picnic lunch and wine tasting.

Located 40 minutes from Portland, Newberg will welcome guests with the opportunity to enjoy special lodging packages during the month of February, with ruffle-themed wine vacations at four distinct wine country experiences:

The Allison Inn & Spa will treat guests to a five-course "truffle celebration" meal at JORY restaurant on Friday and Saturday nights in February when they book the Willamette Valley Truffles package.
